

Anti-Bullying Policy Review Checklist

Cross-border planning prompts for school leaders. Choose the NI or ROI edition for region-specific review.

DRAFT FOR PROFESSIONAL REVIEW

Use this resource alongside your school's current policy, safeguarding procedures and official regional guidance. Do not use it to record pupil names or confidential case details.

Purpose, scope and accessibility

Check whether the policy is easy to find, understand and use.

- ☐ The policy states its purpose and intended audience.
- ☐ Definitions and examples match current regional guidance.
- ☐ Pupil, staff and parent versions use clear, accessible language.
- ☐ Online behaviour and prejudice-based bullying are addressed.
- ☐ The policy links clearly to safeguarding and behaviour procedures.

Reporting and response

Test whether a pupil, parent or staff member can understand what happens next.

- ☐ Named reporting routes are visible and monitored.
- ☐ Private and accessible reporting options are available.
- ☐ Staff know who records, reviews and follows up a concern.
- ☐ The policy explains confidentiality boundaries without promising secrecy.
- ☐ Safeguarding escalation routes are explicit.

Recording and oversight

Check that records support proportionate follow-up and governance.

- ☐ The policy identifies what must be recorded and where.
- ☐ Access to records is restricted appropriately.
- ☐ Review dates and follow-up responsibilities are clear.
- ☐ Leaders review patterns without exposing pupil identities unnecessarily.
- ☐ Governors or the board receive the required oversight information.

Pupil and parent participation

Check whether consultation changes practice rather than becoming a one-off exercise.

- ☐ Pupil views inform language, reporting and prevention work.
- ☐ Parent communication explains routes and realistic next steps.
- ☐ Consultation methods are accessible and age-appropriate.
- ☐ Feedback can be given without public disclosure.
- ☐ The school records actions taken after consultation.

Review date:

Implementation and review

Confirm that the written policy matches daily practice.

- ☐ Staff briefing and induction include the policy.
- ☐ Campaign activity connects to year-round procedures.
- ☐ Classroom materials use the same reporting language.
- ☐ The policy has a named owner and next review date.
- ☐ Current official sources are checked at each review.
